

INDICE

Foreword	V
Introduction Caroline Moser	1
Section 1: Policy Approaches for Understanding Violence and Related Interventions
What Causes Crime and Violence? Daniel Lederman and Norman Loayza	7
Violence as a Public Health Problem Mark Rosenberg	12
How Social Capital is Defined and Operationalized in Current Social Policy and Antipoverty Programs in the United States Anne Kubisch	17
The Ecological Model as a Tool for Understanding Gender – Based Violence Lori Heise	22
Section 2: Recent Empirical Finding on Violence and Social Capital in Latin America
Rural Violence in Colombia Alejandro Reyes Posada	29
Changing Perceptions of Violence in Colombia and Implications for Policy Marc Chenick	33
Community Assets and Violence in a Haitian Urban Slum Peter Paproski	38
Rough Gangs and Violence in Urban Nicaragua Dennis Rodgers	40
Section 3: Innovative Interventions Designed to Enhance or Strengthen Social Capital and Reduce Violence
Mobilizing Community Assets Moustafa Mourad	47
Building Community Networks to Address Violence: Pan American Health Organization's Ten Country Program Pamela Hartigan	50
Violence Reduction in the Community: The Contra Costa County Prevention Program Larry Cohen	53