

Contents

	Introduction	1
1	The Gathering Momentum for International Environmental Funds	3
	The Brundtland Report—legitimizing proposals for environmental funding	3
	The International Conservation Financing Program (ICFP)	4
	Options for the World Bank	7
	Spring of 1989—a flood of proposals	10
2	From Words into Action	12
	September 1989	12
	The French proposal	15
	The World Bank response	17
	January through March 1990—laying the foundations for the GEF	19
3	Negotiating an Agreement	23
	Paris in springtime	23
	Financing the Montreal Protocol?	24
	Progress and problems in the summer of 1990	25
	The tripartite agreement	27
	The September meeting	27
	The November meeting	28
	Developing country participation	30
	NGO participation	31
	The pledging process	31
	After the negotiations	32
4	In Retrospect	34