

INDICE

Foreward	VII
Acknowledgments	IX
Acronyms and Abbeviations	XI
Executive Summary	XIII
1. The Cotton Sector in West and Central Africa: A Success Story with Challenges Ahead	1
Why Reform a Growing Sector?	2
Whar Types of Reforms Were Institud?	9
What is the Way Forward? Towards a Competitivenes Approach	10
2. Increasing Yields	15
Why Do Seed Cotton Yields Matter?	16
What Expains Stagnating Seed Cotton Yields in WCA?	18
How Can Technical Pratices in WCA be Improved?	19
3. Reducing Post – Harvest Costs and Improving Quality	29
What are the Main Costs and Risks Borne ny Ginners?	30
What is the Way Minimize Risk when Desegning Seed Cotton Pricing Schemes?	31
How Can the Risks Associated with Transport be reduced?	38
The Need to Improve the Reliability of Quality and Grading	43
4. Enhancing Sales Revenues	49
The Challenges of Managing Cotton Prce Risk	50
Tools for Selling Cotton and the Capacity to Use Them Proactively	54
Designing and Implementing a Sales Strategy	59
What Can Governments Do to Enhance Sales Revenues?	65
5. Promoting Competitiveness Through Sector Reforms	69
Re – structuring Markets	70
What Types of investors are Needed'	75
Articulating the Main Steps of the De – regulation Process befote Transferring Public Property to Private Investors	75
Appendixes	79
A. Implications of Cotton Policies	81
B. Cotton and the Sixth WTO Ministerial in Hong Kong	83
Bibliography	85