

Contents

Introduction	6
Law: A necessary evil?
Scope of this book
Part One: General Issues
1 What is law?	9
Descriptive and prescriptive
Social morality, rules and laws
2 Sources of modern law	14
Historical and political background
Common law systems
Continental systems
Modern Japanese law
Socialist legal systems
3 Civil and public law	21
Main categories
Differences in procedure
Points of contact
4 Judicial institutions	25
English courts
International comparisons
Appeals
Lower courts
Restrictions
5 Lawyers at work	31
Professional titles
Range of work
Entering the profession
Regulating the profession
Legalese
Part Two: Legal Principles
6 Contracts	38
Different types
Essential elements
Damages
Other remedies

7	Criminal Law	45
	What is a crime?
	Elements of proof
	Defenses
8	Torts	51
	Comparison with crimes
	Comparison with broken contracts
	Requirements of proof
9	Trusts	57
	Different types
	Enforcers and administrators
	Requirements
10	Land law	61
	Complexity
	Estate in English law
	Legal interests
	Land transfer
	Short-term possession
	Regulation of private and public land
Part Three: The Law in Practice
11	Running a business	68
	Organization
	Internal management
	Termination
12	The law and the family	75
	Marriage law
	Divorce law
	Protection of children
	Rights of succession
13	The law and consumers	82
	Contracts
	Exemptions
	Product liability
14	Employment law	88
	Employment rights
	EC employment law
	Comparison with Japan
15	Intellectual property	93
	Patents and copyrights

	Keeping pace with technology
	Trademarks and trade secrets
Part Four: Law, Politics and Society
16	Freedom of speech and expression	97
	Political censorship
	Words of violence and racism
	Art, literature and pornography
	Defamation
17	The rights of citizens	104
	Constitutional law
	Separation of powers
	Rights of citizens
18	Human rights	109
	Law and politics
	Cultural differences
	International agreements
	Human rights violations
	Racial and sexual discrimination
19	Enforcing the law	115
	Role of police force
	Civil and criminal penalties
	Capital punishment
20	Internationalization of the law	121
	Growth of international law
	Conflicts of national sovereignty
	Internationalizing legal systems
	Glossary	127