

INDICE

Figures, tables, and boxes	vii
Foreword	x
Acknowledgements	xii
Acronyms	xv
Overview	xvii
1. Dimensions of child undernutrition in India	1
Why invest in combating undernutrition	4
Prevalence of underweight	10
Prevalence of micronutrient deficiencies	21
Will India meet the nutrition MDG?	28
Conclusions	31
2. The integrated child development services program: are results meeting expectations?	33
How ICDS aims to address the causes of persistent undernutrition	34
Empirical findings on the impacts of ICDS	41
Targeting of ICDS program and beneficiaries	42
Characteristics and quality of ICDS service delivery	52
Monitoring and evaluation	59
Lessons from successful innovations	64
3. Enhancing the impact of ICDS?	71
Mismatches between program design and implementation	72
How can ICDS reach its full potential?	73
Next steps: rationalizing design and improvising implementation	87
Appendix: additional figures and tables	91
Notes	99
Bibliography	105