

INDICE

Preface	VII
Part I. The Colonial College
1. Beginning	3
2. Early Patterns of Organization and Administration	24
3. Early Student Life	39
Part II. Nineteenth – Century Innovations in the Colonial College
4. Multiplication and Variation of Colleges	59
5. Early Methods of Instruction	84
6. The Elective Struggle	100
7. The Period of Fraternities and Athletics	120
Part III. The Rise Of Universities in Nineteenth – Century America
8. The American State University	143
9. The Development of the Graduate School	174
10. Professional Education	198
11. The federal Government and Higher Education	219
Part IV. Higher Education in the Twentieth Century
12. Articulation of Secondary and Higher Education	241
13. innovations in Curriculum and Methods	264
14. The Philosophy of Higher education	287
15. Academic Freedom	308
16. Reintegration of curriculum and extracurriculum	330
17. Enlarging Scope of the Administration of Higher Education	354
Part V. In Perspective
18. Distinguishing Features of American Higher Education	399
Notes	418
Bibliography	515
Index	529