

Contents

ABOUT THIS BOOK	VII
INTRODUCTION  Gudrun Kochendörfer-Lucius and Boris Pleskovic	1
OPENING ADDRESS  Michael Hofman	7
OPENING ADDRESS Inequality of Opportunity and Economic Development  Francisco Ferreira and Michael Walton	11
KEYNOTE ADDRESS Distribution, Equity, and Development  François Bourguignon	29
What Is Equity? What Is the Role for Governments in the Promotion of Equity? Does the Role Differ between Developed and Developing Countries?
Promoting Equity through Social Cohesion: The Council of Europe Strategy  Gabriella Battaini-Dragoni	39
Equality of Opportunity and Other Equity Principles in the Context of Developing Countries  Dennis Cogneau	53
What Is Equity?  Stephan Klasen	69
Should Poor People Care about Inequality?  Martin Ravallion	79

Equity-Enhancing Social Transformation: Historical Evidence from Europe and Transition Countries

Inequality and Political Regimes
Carles Boix 95

Income Inequality, Economic Transformation, and Growth in Russia
Evgeny Gavrilentov 113

Justice and Transition
Vladimir Gligorov 127

Building Efficient Welfare States: Lessons Learned

Welfare State, Redistribution, Growth, and Poverty Reduction
Rolph van der Hoeven 149

Global Inequalities: What Can Be Done to Reduce International Inequities?

Rights-Based Development
Jeremy Hobbs 165

Rising Labor Force Participation as a Source of Pro-Poor Growth
Andrew Warner 173

What Will Greater Integration Mean for Inequalities between and within the Richer and Poorer Countries of the "New Europe"?

Social Solidarity in an Expanding Europe
Kemal Dervis 191

Integration and Inequality in the EU Accession Countries
Jan Svejnar 197

APPENDIXES

Appendix 1: Programme 203

Appendix 2: Participants 209