

---

---

Contents

Acknowledgments . . . . .	xxxi
Preface . . . . .	xxxiii
Editor Biographies . . . . .	xxxv
Acronyms . . . . .	xxxvii
Synthesis . . . . .	1
I. Rationale and Organization . . . . .	1
II. Central Messages . . . . .	2
III. The Agenda's Diagnoses and Policies . . . . .	4
Achieving Fast and Sustainable Growth . . . . .	4
Sharing the Fruits of Growth . . . . .	19
Building a Government of Quality . . . . .	25
IV. A Path to a New Colombia . . . . .	29
Table 1. Colombia: A Possible Prioritization of Policies for the New Presidential Administration . . . . .	31

Part I Thematic Notes

1. Violence, Sustainable Peace, and Development . . . . .	35
I. Introduction . . . . .	35
II. Violence Trends and Characteristics . . . . .	35
III. Sources of Violence and Conflict . . . . .	39
Armed Conflict . . . . .	40
Social Conflict . . . . .	41
Drug Trade . . . . .	43
IV. Costs of Violence and Conflict . . . . .	44
Economic Costs of Violence . . . . .	44
Social Costs of Violence . . . . .	47
Political Costs of Violence . . . . .	48
Environmental Costs of Violence . . . . .	49

V.	Toward Building Peace and Sustainable and Equitable Development . . . . .	49
	Armed Conflict and Drug Trade . . . . .	50
	Underlying Social Conflicts . . . . .	51
	Critical Elements of Strategic Approach . . . . .	54
VI.	Conclusion . . . . .	55
	References . . . . .	56
	Figure 1. Murder Rate per 100,000 Population, 1993–94. . . . .	36
	Figure 2. Murder Rate, 1946–98. . . . .	38
	Figure 3. Cocaine Production, Homicide Rate, and Guerrilla Front . . . . .	43
	2. Enabling Sustainable Growth. . . . .	59
I.	Introduction . . . . .	59
II.	Providing a Sustainable Macroeconomic and Fiscal Framework . . . . .	60
	Background . . . . .	60
	Fiscal and Debt Sustainability . . . . .	61
	Debt Management . . . . .	61
	Fiscal Adjustment Options . . . . .	62
III.	Ensuring a Healthy Financial System . . . . .	65
IV.	Creating a Business Environment to Foster Private Sector Development. . . . .	69
V.	Improvement in Infrastructure and Public Services to Foster Competitiveness . . . . .	70
	Energy Sector . . . . .	71
	Telecommunications . . . . .	74
	Transport . . . . .	76
	Urban Development and Low-Income Housing . . . . .	78
	Superintendency of Domestic Public Services . . . . .	79
VI.	Management of Natural Resources and Physical Environment . . . . .	81
	Rural and Agricultural Development . . . . .	81
	Water Resources Management . . . . .	83
	Potable Water Supply, Sanitation and Wastewater Treatment . . . . .	84
	Solid Waste Management . . . . .	86
	Disaster Management and Disaster Insurance Mechanisms . . . . .	86
VII.	Conclusions . . . . .	88
	3. Shared Growth, Poverty, and Inequality . . . . .	89
I.	Introduction . . . . .	89
II.	Colombia's Tradition of Economic and Social Progress . . . . .	90
	Economic Growth Was Instrumental to Poverty Reduction. . . . .	90
	Persistent Social Progress . . . . .	91
	Generally Propoor Expansion of Social Expenditures in the 1990s. . . . .	92
III.	Recent Setbacks. . . . .	94
	Economic Recession . . . . .	94

Increasing Macroeconomic Instability and Judicial Uncertainty . . . . .	95
The Growing Burden of Violence and Crime . . . . .	96
Rising Income Inequality: Induced by Higher Wage Skill Premia and Eroding Potential Welfare Gains . . . . .	97
IV. Resulting Vulnerability . . . . .	100
V. Addressing the Emerging Challenges: Employment, the Efficient and Equitable Provision of Public Services, and Security . . . . .	102
Restore Economic Growth to Accelerate Job Creation and Reverse the Rise in Poverty . . . . .	103
Improve the Equity and Efficiency of Public Social Services . . . . .	105
Establish a Functional Social Safety Net . . . . .	109
VI. Conclusion . . . . .	111
Raising the Income of the Poor . . . . .	111
Ensuring the Equitable and Efficient Provision of Basic Social Services . . . . .	112
Reducing Exposure to Risk . . . . .	112
Appendix . . . . .	113
References . . . . .	128
Figure 1. Labor Earnings by Skill Level, Urban Colombia, 1999 . . . . .	99
Figure 2. The Poverty Rate Under High and Low Growth Scenarios, 2001–10, Urban Colombia . . . . .	104
Figure 3. Share of Total Household Income Required to Close Poverty and Extreme Poverty Gaps . . . . .	106
Table 1. Poverty and Inequality Indicators, Colombia 1978–99 . . . . .	91
Table 2. Social Indicators, Urban Colombia 1978–99 . . . . .	92
Table 3. Change in Social Service Coverage Rates, 1992–97 . . . . .	93
Table 4. Colombia's Volatility . . . . .	96
Table 5. Poverty Count for Different Subgroups of the Population, Urban Colombia 1978–99 (percent) . . . . .	101
Table 6. Coverage and Expenditure for Social Services, Colombia 1992–97 (growth) . . . . .	107
Table 7. Coverage Shortfalls and Targeting in Selected Social Programs . . . . .	107
Table A.1. Summary of Issues, Objectives, and Recommendations by Sectors . . . . .	113
Table A.2. Summary of Policy Handles that Impact Welfare in Three Dimensions: Income, Access to Social Service, and Risk Management . . . . .	122
Table A.3. Definitions Associated with Table 1 . . . . .	126
Table A.4. Inequality Decomposition, Urban Colombia . . . . .	127
4. The Demand for Governance and Quality of Government . . . . .	131
I. Summary . . . . .	131
II. Background: A Dual Quality of Government . . . . .	132

III. The Problem with the Coexistence of Strong and Weak Governance . . . .	136
IV. Strategizing to Strengthen Governance: Selectivity and Gradualism in Building High-Quality Government . . . . .	138
Box 1. Budget Implementation and Control . . . . .	133
Box 2. Efforts to Improve Quality of Government in the United States and Mexico . . . . .	139
Box 3. Targeting Reforms to Plug Loopholes. . . . .	140
Box 4. Steps to Ensure Good Governance in Colombia . . . . .	141
Box 5. Focalizing Reforms . . . . .	142
Box 6. Singapore's Experience with Phased-In Governance Strengthening. . . .	142

Part II

Achieving Fast and Sustainable Growth

5. Macroeconomic and Fiscal Frameworks . . . . .	145
I. The 1990s: From Rapid Growth to Recession. . . . .	147
II. Policies for Adjustment . . . . .	152
III. Main Issues and Options . . . . .	157
Fiscal Sustainability . . . . .	157
Expenditures. . . . .	159
Net Worth and Illusory Adjustment. . . . .	164
Revenues . . . . .	165
The Central Bank . . . . .	167
IV. Conclusions . . . . .	168
References . . . . .	170
Figure 1. Central Government Revenues and Expenditure . . . . .	151
Figure 2. Central Government Current Savings . . . . .	151
Figure 3. Growing Deficits . . . . .	152
Figure 4. Growth of Expenditures . . . . .	160
Figure 5. Composition of Expenditures . . . . .	166
Figure 6. Major Tax Reforms, 1990–2000 . . . . .	166
Table 1. Increased Volatility in Colombia in the 1990s . . . . .	147
Table 2. Growth in Central Government Spending Due to Legal and Constitutional Changes, 1990–98 (percent of GDP) . . . . .	149
Table 3. Two Medium-Term Scenarios . . . . .	158
6. The Tax System . . . . .	173
I. Introduction . . . . .	173
II. Background. . . . .	173
III. The Tax System: Issues and Policy Recommendations . . . . .	178
National Taxes . . . . .	179
Subnational Taxes . . . . .	184

Tax Administration . . . . .	186
Appendix A Summary of Previous Tax Reforms . . . . .	188
References . . . . .	191
Table 1. Colombia—Structure of Taxes . . . . .	174
Table 2. Colombia—National Taxes . . . . .	175
Table 3. Colombia—Taxes Collected by Departments (1999) . . . . .	176
Table 4. Comparative Composition of Tax Revenue (Average 1995–97) . . . . .	177
Table 5. Colombia—Central Government-Earmarked Taxes (1999) . . . . .	180
Table 6. Colombia—Taxes Collected by Municipalities (1999) . . . . .	185
7. Public Debt Sustainability and Management . . . . .	193
I. Summary . . . . .	193
II. Background . . . . .	193
III. Issues, Diagnosis, and Policy Recommendations . . . . .	201
The Primary Balance and Debt Sustainability . . . . .	201
Vulnerability and Management Risks in the Debt Structure . . . . .	206
Key Government Liabilities and Potential Impact on Debt Management . . . . .	210
Policy, Legal, and Institutional Framework for Central Government Debt Management . . . . .	212
Strengthening the Framework for Debt Management . . . . .	217
Estimated Fiscal Impact . . . . .	225
Annex I. Key Elements of Vulnerability of Central Government Debt . . . . .	227
Annex II. Analytical Framework for Fiscal Sustainability . . . . .	234
Annex III. External Liquidity and Fiscal Vulnerability Issues in Colombia— A Contrast with the Argentine Case . . . . .	238
Annex IV. Debt Management Strategy and Portfolio Benchmarking . . . . .	247
Annex V. Development of Debt Markets . . . . .	251
Box 1. Legal Framework for Debt Management in Colombia . . . . .	214
Box 2. Reform of the Legal Framework for the Debt Management Office in Brazil . . . . .	218
Box 3. Risk Management in Brazil . . . . .	220
Box 4. Building Benchmark Issues Through Reopening and Buyback Operations . . . . .	223
Box 5. Growth and Importance of Institutional Investors . . . . .	223
Box 6. The Role of Secondary Market Windows . . . . .	225
Box A.V.1. The Spanish Experience with Specialized Investment Funds . . . . .	253
Figure 1. Public Sector Balances . . . . .	194
Figure 2. Interest Payments of the Public Sector . . . . .	196
Figure 3. Gross External and Domestic Debt of the Public Sector . . . . .	197
Figure 4. Gross Public Debt by Debtor . . . . .	198
Figure 5. Domestic Debt of the Central Government by Creditor . . . . .	199
Figure 6. External Debt of the Central Government by Type of Creditor . . . . .	200

Figure 7. Debt Structure of Sub-National Entities . . . . .	201
Figure 8. Debt/GDP Ratio; Primary Balance Constant at 2001 Level . . . . .	203
Figure 9. Debt/GDP Ratio; Primary Balance Set to Keep Debt/GDP Ratio Constant . . . . .	204
Figure 10. Debt/GDP Ratio; Primary Balance Constant at 4 Percent of GDP Slow Growth Scenario. . . . .	205
Figure 11. Domestic Real Interest Rate Volatility . . . . .	208
Figure 12. Average Coupon in Real Terms on Domestic Public Debt . . . . .	209
Figure 13. Public External Debt Ratios . . . . .	210
Figure A.I.1. Domestic Central Government Debt by Type of Coupon, TES Bonds. . . . .	228
Figure A.I.2. Half Life and Duration of Domestic Central Government Debt . . . . .	229
Figure A.I.3. Maturity of Domestic Central Government Debt. . . . .	229
Figure A.I.4. Currency Structure of External Public Debt. . . . .	230
Figure A.I.5. Currency Structure of External Public Debt. . . . .	231
Figure A.I.6. External Central Government Debt by Type of Coupon. . . . .	232
Figure A.I.7. Half Life and Duration of External Central Government Debt . . . . .	232
Figure A.I.8. Maturity Structure of External Central Government Debt . . . . .	233
Figure A.III.1. International Reserves and Public External Debt Stocks . . . . .	239
Figure A.III.2. Total Exports and Public External Debt Stocks . . . . .	240
Figure A.III.3. Public External Debt Service and Total International Reserves . . . . .	241
Figure A.III.4. Public External Debt Service and Total Exports . . . . .	241
Figure A.III.5. Public Interest Payments and Tax Revenues . . . . .	243
Figure A.III.6. Public Interest Payments and Total Revenues. . . . .	243
Figure A.III.7. Public Debt Stocks and Total Revenues. . . . .	244
Figure A.III.8. Gross Public Debt and GDP . . . . .	244
Figure A.III.9. Consolidated Public Sector Balances . . . . .	245
Figure A.III.10. Total Public Sector Revenues. . . . .	245
Figure A.V.1 Holders of Central Government Domestic Debt . . . . .	252
Table 1. Key Assumptions and Projections . . . . .	202
Table 2. Permanent Primary Surplus: Sensitivity Analysis (percent) . . . . .	205
Table 3. Permanent Primary Surplus: Sensitivity Analysis (percent) . . . . .	206
Table 4. Short-Run Impact of Changes in Key Variables on Public Sector Debt Service . . . . .	207
Table A.I.1. Types of Domestic Treasury Bonds . . . . .	227
8. The Financial Sector . . . . .	255
I. Background . . . . .	255
II. The Financial Crisis Management Strategy . . . . .	257

III. Restructuring and Recapitalization of the State-Owned and Private Banks . . . . .	258
FOGAFIN's Crisis Response Instruments. . . . .	259
The Development of Regulatory and Supervisory Strategies . . . . .	261
IV. Fiscal and Economic Costs in Relation to Financial Sector Restructuring . . . . .	263
The Corporate Sector . . . . .	264
Pending Policy and Institutional Reforms—The Banking Sector . . . . .	266
V. Reform of Second-Tier Public Banking Institutions. . . . .	268
Characteristics of Government Banks in Relation to a Merger Proposal. . . . .	268
Pending Policy and Institutional Reforms—Second-Tier State Banks. . . . .	270
VI. Capital Market Development and the Public Debt Market . . . . .	271
VII. Conclusion . . . . .	277
Table 1. Financial System Return on Assets (percent) . . . . .	256
Table 2. Capitalization Support Provided to State-Owned Banks, 1998–2001 . . . . .	260
Table 3. Private Bank Capitalization (Credit Line) Program, 1998–2001 . . . . .	261
Table 4. FOGAFIN Balance Sheet as at end 2000 and end 2001 (Col$ billions) . . . . .	262
Table 5. Total FOGAFIN Support to Financial Entities, 1998–2002 (C$ millions) . . . . .	264
Table 6. Assets as Percent of GDP of Companies/Corporations in Distress (percent) . . . . .	265
Table 7. Public Pension System Liabilities. . . . .	274
Table 8. Estimated Fiscal Funding of Territorial Pension Obligations (Col$ billions) . . . . .	275
9. Pension Reform . . . . .	279
I. Executive Summary . . . . .	279
II. Introduction . . . . .	281
III. Colombia's Pension System . . . . .	282
The 1993 Pension Reform. . . . .	282
Law 100 of 1993 . . . . .	283
Current Structure of the Pension System . . . . .	286
Evolution of Coverage. . . . .	286
Instituto de Seguros Sociales . . . . .	287
Private Pension Fund Managers . . . . .	290
Transition Regimes . . . . .	290
Exempted Regimes . . . . .	292
Collective Agreements. . . . .	293
Pension Recognition Bonds . . . . .	294

IV. Fiscal Requirements of the Current System . . . . .	294
The Model . . . . .	294
Pension Liabilities . . . . .	295
V. Reform Requirements . . . . .	298
Overall Strategy . . . . .	298
Reform Options . . . . .	299
Specific Reforms . . . . .	302
Fiscal Impact of Pension Reform . . . . .	305
Pension Reform in Draft Law . . . . .	305
VI. Conclusion . . . . .	310
Figure 1. Payroll Taxes for Social Insurance and Health in Latin America, 1995 . . . . .	285
Figure 2. Pension Benefit Recipients as Percentage of Elderly Population 1980–99 . . . . .	288
Figure 3. Contributors to Publicly Mandated Social Security as Percentage of Economically Active Population, 1980–99. . . . .	289
Figure 4. Current Deficit of the Pension System by Component (as percent of GDP) . . . . .	297
Figure 5. Reserves in Millions of 1999 Pesos; Cohort of 1,000 Women and 1,000 Men Joining ISS. . . . .	301
Figure 6. Total Current Deficit of the Pension System With and Without Reform, as a Percent of GDP . . . . .	306
Table 1. Colombia: Total Labor Costs (as percent of wage) . . . . .	284
Table 2. Labor Force Statistics as of January 2001 . . . . .	287
Table 3. Exempted Regimes . . . . .	292
Table 4. Contributions to Exempted Pension Regimes (as a percentage of salary) . . . . .	293
Table 5. Pension Liabilities, by Regime . . . . .	296
Table 6. National Government Pension Payments (as percent of GDP) . . . . .	296
Table 7. Estimates of Implicit Pension Debt and General Government Debt, Selected OECD Countries (percent of GDP) . . . . .	298
Table 8. Implicit Pension Debt Estimates, and Pension and Public Debt Data (percent of GDP) . . . . .	299
Table 9. Impact of Individual Parameter Changes on the ISS Deficit . . . . .	302
10. Housing Finance . . . . .	313
I. Executive Summary . . . . .	313
II. Genesis and Evolution of a Crisis . . . . .	313
III. Government Packages of Reforms . . . . .	314
IV. Main Sectoral Issues . . . . .	315
A Contaminating Deterioration of the Mortgage Portfolio . . . . .	315
A Contracting Mortgage Stock and Production of New Loans. . . . .	317
Legal, Regulatory, and Institutional Environments . . . . .	319

Figure 1. Quality of the Residential Mortgage Portfolio . . . . .	316
Figure 2. Nonperforming Mortgage Loans, Public and Private Banks . . . . .	318
Table 1. Recent Evolution of Mortgage Lending . . . . .	319
11. Urban Development . . . . .	329
I. Urbanization in Colombia . . . . .	330
II. The Legal and Institutional Framework . . . . .	332
III. Urban Poverty . . . . .	334
IV. Access to Public Services . . . . .	336
Land and Housing . . . . .	338
Water Supply, Sanitation, and Solid Waste Management . . . . .	341
Urban Transport . . . . .	350
V. Policy Recommendations . . . . .	353
Urbanization . . . . .	353
Land and Housing . . . . .	356
Water Supply and Sanitation . . . . .	357
Urban Transport . . . . .	357
References . . . . .	358
Box 1. The Medellín Metro . . . . .	354
Box 2. The TransMilenio System in Bogotá . . . . .	354
Figure 1. Bid Rent for Land: Poor versus Nonpoor . . . . .	344
Table 1. Gross Annual Rates of Internal Migration to the Main Cities and Some Conurbations, 1982–2000 . . . . .	331
Table 2. Indicators of Unsatisfied Basic Needs by Zone, 1993–2000 . . . . .	335
Table 3. Poverty Indicators and Income Inequality, Urban Colombia, 1978–99 . . . . .	336
Table 4. Social Indicators, Urban Colombia, 1978–99 . . . . .	337
Table 5. Housing Deficit (National, Urban, and Rural), 1997–2000 . . . . .	342
Table 6. Coverage of Water Supply and Sewerage Services in Colombia (percent) . . . . .	345
Table 7. Coverage of Water Supply, Sewerage, and Solid-Waste Collection in the Main Cities (percent), 2000 . . . . .	346
Table 8. Coverage of Water Supply Services in Major Cities . . . . .	346
Table 9. Water Supply and Sewerage Utilities: Total Expenses/Operational Income, 1999 and 2000 . . . . .	348
Table 10. Solid Waste Companies: Total Expenses/Operational Income, 1999 and 2000 . . . . .	349
Table 11. Unaccounted-For Water in Major Cities, Percentage . . . . .	349
Table 12. Demand for Public Transportation in Major Cities . . . . .	350
Table 13. Public Transport Vehicles and Their Productivity in the Main Cities, 2000 . . . . .	351
Table 14. Public Transport Fares in Several Cities, 2000 . . . . .	352
Table 15. Accident Rates in Colombia's Main Cities, 1999 . . . . .	353

12. Transport . . . . .	363
I. Background. . . . .	363
II. Main Sector Issues and Strategies . . . . .	370
Armed Conflict Negatively Affects the Functioning of the Sector . . . . .	370
Isolation of Areas Due to Lack of Transportation Infrastructure. . . . .	371
The Unfinished Development of the Institutional and Regulatory Framework . . . . .	371
Ensuring Adequate Resources to Address the Needs of the Transport Sector . . . . .	374
Private Participation in the Development of the Sector's Infrastructure . . . . .	377
Difficulties in the Mobilization of Population within Urban Areas. . . . .	380
II. Recommendations. . . . .	381
Contributing to the Peace Process . . . . .	381
Consolidation of the Institutional Reforms of the Transport Sector . . . . .	382
Decentralization of the Road System . . . . .	383
In Search of Financial Sustainability for the Sector . . . . .	384
References . . . . .	385
Annex . . . . .	386
Figure 1. Transportation and Economy, GNP, Tons per Kilometer . . . . .	364
Figure 2. Transport Sector Investment . . . . .	375
Table 1. Cargo Mobilization at National Level (thousand of tons per year) . . . . .	365
Table 2. Deterioration of Paved Road System Managed by INVIAS (percent) . . . . .	366
Table 3. Condition of Unpaved Roads (percent) . . . . .	367
Table 4. Private Participation in the Transport Sector . . . . .	369
Table 5. Transport Budget 1998–2001 (millions of pesos) . . . . .	376
Table A.1. Road Priority Projects—Vias para la Paz Program . . . . .	386
Table A.2. Transport Entity Roles . . . . .	387
Table A.3. Port Indicators With and Without Reform . . . . .	388
Table A.4. Anticipated Private Participation in Transport . . . . .	389
13. Energy Sector Strategy . . . . .	391
I. Background. . . . .	391
Terrorism . . . . .	391
Oil Subsector . . . . .	392
Gas Subsector . . . . .	395
Power Subsector . . . . .	397
Coal Subsector . . . . .	400
Energy and the Environment. . . . .	401
II. Achievements and Issues . . . . .	402
Issue 1: Oil and Gas Supply and Pricing. . . . .	403

Issue 2: Regulating Generation and Distribution . . . . .	406
Issue 3: Unfinished Business—Further Privatization of State-Owned Companies . . . . .	409
Issue 4: Reforming or Strengthening the Regulatory and Supervisory Institution . . . . .	411
Issue 5: Energy, Poverty, and Peace . . . . .	414
III. Summary of Recommendations and Next Steps . . . . .	415
References . . . . .	419
Figure 1. Per Capita Energy Consumption (kg oil equivalent per year) . . . . .	392
Figure 2. Comparative Reserves (Mboe) . . . . .	394
14. Information and Communications Technology Sector . . . . .	421
I. Background . . . . .	421
Information and Communications Technology and Development . . . . .	421
Sector Reform and Liberalization . . . . .	422
Privatization Attempts . . . . .	425
II. Sector Issues . . . . .	425
Low Private Sector Participation . . . . .	425
Fragmentation of Regulatory Institutions . . . . .	426
Subsidies and Tariffs . . . . .	426
Low Internet Penetration . . . . .	428
Reduced Role of Colombia in the Information Society and the Global Economy . . . . .	428
III. Options for Solutions . . . . .	429
Increased Private Sector Participation . . . . .	429
Tariff Reform . . . . .	430
Consolidation of Regulatory Institutions . . . . .	430
Incentives for Local Telephone Companies to Compete With Each Other and Flexibility to Merge . . . . .	430
IV. Colombia in the Information Society . . . . .	431
Ministry of Information and Communication Technology . . . . .	431
Telecom Fund . . . . .	432
Developing and Promoting the Use of ICT Applications . . . . .	432
Figure 1. ICTs Are the Basis of the Knowledge Economy . . . . .	423
Figure 2. Teledensity in Selected Latin American Countries and Spain . . . . .	424
Figure 3. Cell Phone Penetration in Selected Latin American Countries . . . . .	425
Figure 4. Local Subscription Rates in Selected Latin American Countries . . . . .	427
Figure 5. Internet Penetration, Selected Latin American Countries and Spain . . . . .	429
Table 1. Finances of Colombia's Telecommunications Companies . . . . .	428
15. Urban Water and Sanitation Sector . . . . .	433
I. Summary . . . . .	433

II. Background: Sector Status and Issues . . . . .	435
Sector Context . . . . .	435
Main Sector Issues . . . . .	436
III. Water Sector Policy Recommendations for the Incoming Government . . . . .	442
Improving the Water Supply and Sanitation Services in Medium-Size Cities and Small Municipalities . . . . .	442
Improving the Water Supply and Sanitation Services in the Rural Sector . . . . .	443
Management and Disposal of Municipal Wastewater . . . . .	444
Guidance for Major Projects in Large Cities . . . . .	447
Improving the Regulatory Framework of the Water Sector . . . . .	447
Annex I. Improving the Water Supply and Sanitation Services in Medium-Size Cities and Small Municipalities . . . . .	452
Annex II. Examples of Government Guidance Regarding the Water and Sewerage Projects in Large Cities . . . . .	458
Annex III. Intersectoral and International Context of the Problems Associated with the Regulatory Reform Proposed by the Water Regulatory Commission . . . . .	461
Table 1. Coverage of Water and Sewerage in Colombia . . . . .	437
Table 2. Effective Water Coverage in Colombia as Indicator of Level of Service. . . . .	438
Table 3. Regional Distribution of Water and Sewerage Coverage Rates in Colombia . . . . .	438
Table 4. Performance Indicators in Some Large- and Medium-Size Utilities Operated by the Private Sector . . . . .	441
16. Natural Disaster Management: Vulnerability Reduction &amp; Insurance . . . . .	463
Part A. Hazard Mitigation and the Institutional Framework . . . . .	463
I. Background. . . . .	463
Risk and Vulnerability Assessments . . . . .	464
Institutions. . . . .	466
Part B. Catastrophe Risk Exposure of Public Assets: An Analysis of Insurance Instruments for Smoothing Fiscal Volatility . . . . .	470
I. Insurance Contractual Arrangements and the use of Reinsurance. . . . .	471
The Quantification of the Natural Hazard Threat in Colombia. . . . .	472
Inventory of Public Assets and Infrastructure . . . . .	475
Loss Projections for Risk-Management Planning. . . . .	476
Catastrophe Insurance Pricing and Risk-Load Factors . . . . .	477
Comparison of Financial Instruments for Catastrophe Protection . . . . .	478
Financial Parameters for Establishing a Risk-Management Strategy . . . . .	479

Risk-Linked Securities and Catastrophe Bonds . . . . .	479
Risk Financing with Contingent Credit . . . . .	482
Role of the Domestic Insurance Sector . . . . .	484
II. Recommendations for the Development of a Government
Risk-Transfer Policy . . . . .	484
Figure 1. Quantification of Natural Hazard Threat in Colombia . . . . .	473
Figure 2. Seismic Risk—Loss Distribution Function . . . . .	476
Figure 3. Loss Probability Functions for Single and Cumulative Events . . . . .	478
Figure 4. Catastrophe Bond Financing Structure . . . . .	482
Figure 5. Potential Role of Domestic Insurers in Government Risk Transfer . . . . .	485
Table 1. Local Industry Reinsurance Arrangements . . . . .	471
Table 2. Catastrophic Earthquake Frequency and Loss Intensity . . . . .	474
Table 3. Roads: Vulnerability Factors as a Multiple of Standard Damage
Ratio of 1.00 . . . . .	474
Table 4. Capital Stock—Earthquake Damage Ratios . . . . .	475
Table 5. Equivalence in Pricing Between Financial Market Bonds and
Cat Bonds (percent) . . . . .	480
Table 6. Example of Parametric Loss Triggers for Cat Bond “Payment” . . . . .	481
Table 7. Insurance Structure Using Risk Transfer and Risk Financing
Instruments . . . . .	483
17. Agriculture and Rural Development . . . . .	487
I. Background . . . . .	487
II. Main Issues . . . . .	492
Missed Opportunities for Growth . . . . .	492
The Poor Functioning of Factor and Goods Markets . . . . .	493
Poverty and Inequality . . . . .	499
Institutional Breakdown . . . . .	502
III. Options for the Future . . . . .	505
Fostering Growth in the Rural Economy . . . . .	505
Poverty . . . . .	510
Institutions . . . . .	511
Natural Resources . . . . .	513
References . . . . .	514
Box 1. PROCAMPO . . . . .	507
Figure 1. Growth Rates . . . . .	488
Figure 2. Percent Change in Area Harvested Between 1988–90 and
1999–2000 . . . . .	498
Figure 3. Income Per Capita—Sen Welfare Index . . . . .	500
Table 1. Poverty and Inequality (in percent) . . . . .	489
18. Coffee . . . . .	517
I. Background . . . . .	517

Anatomy and Evolution of the Sector . . . . .	517
Global Context and Trends . . . . .	519
Production and Demand Trends . . . . .	520
Macro Trends in Established Consumer Markets . . . . .	523
II. Main Sectoral Issues/Diagnostic . . . . .	525
Domestic Impact of Low Prices Trends and Volatility . . . . .	526
Smallholders and Their Integration with the Process of Rural Development . . . . .	528
Policy Initiatives with Stabilization Funds and Subsidies . . . . .	529
Institutions and Their Roles . . . . .	530
Credit . . . . .	532
Issues Across the Supply Chain . . . . .	532
The Changing Nature of Demand and Adapting to Differentiated Markets . . . . .	536
III. Policy Recommendations . . . . .	538
Smallholders and the Rural Poor . . . . .	538
Managing Transition: Options for Diversification . . . . .	540
Risk Management and Safety Nets . . . . .	543
Policies of Subsidy and Support . . . . .	545
Institutional Leadership . . . . .	546
Competitive Foci . . . . .	547
Annex I. The Nature and Characteristics of Differentiated Coffee Markets . . . . .	551
Annex II. Colombia's Coffee Subsector Public Supports . . . . .	554
References . . . . .	555
Figure 1. Importer Demand for Exportable Production (percent) . . . . .	521
Figure 2. Producer Price ($1998 = 100) and Production Volume . . . . .	526
Figure 3. Key Policy Recommendations for the Coffee Sector . . . . .	539
Figure A.I.1. Percent Rating Attributes as Important . . . . .	553
Table 1. The Increasing Concentration of the International Coffee Business . . . . .	522
Table 2. Coffee Prices Volatility Index (Standard Deviation Percent) . . . . .	527
Table 3. Distribution of Coffee Plots (by size) . . . . .	527
19. Land Policies . . . . .	559
I. Executive Summary . . . . .	559
II. Background and Challenges . . . . .	560
The Extent of Inequality in Land Access and Reconcentration and Underlying Factors . . . . .	561
The Consequence of Colombia's Skewed Land Distribution: Inappropriate Use of Natural Resources . . . . .	563
Landownership Patterns and Administrative Decentralization . . . . .	564
Land Access and Landownership as Key Determinants of Household Welfare . . . . .	565

III. Main Issues . . . . .	566
Security of Tenure and Mechanisms of Land Access . . . . .	567
Land Titling . . . . .	572
Land Reform . . . . .	573
IV. Policy Recommendations . . . . .	580
Systematic Titling . . . . .	580
Fiscal Policy and Land Taxation . . . . .	580
Ordenamiento Territorial and Sustainable Land Use . . . . .	581
Land Reform . . . . .	581
Annex . . . . .	583
References . . . . .	585
Table 1. Structure of Landownership and Use in Colombia, 1984 and 1997 . . . . .	562
Table 2. Actual and Potential Land Use in Colombia, 1985 and 1999 . . . . .	564
Table 3. Means of Land Access, Colombia . . . . .	568
Table 4. Ways of Land Acquisition in Different Periods, Colombia . . . . .	569
Table 5. Producers' Rental and Sales Market Participation in Colombia, by Region . . . . .	570
Table 6. Probit Regression for Land Rental and Sales Market Participation . . . . .	571
Table 7. Public Spending for Land Reform and Related Projects, Colombia Different Years (millions of current pesos) . . . . .	576
Table 8. Cost Per Beneficiary Family for Different Modalities of Reform (millions of 1998 dollars) . . . . .	577
Table 9. INCORA's Executed Budget, Total and by Component (millions of 1998 pesos) . . . . .	578
Table 10. Debt Burden of Different Farms Under Pilot and Nonpilot . . . . .	579
Table A.1. Determinants of Land Prices . . . . .	583
20. Rural Finance . . . . .	587
I. Background . . . . .	587
Overview . . . . .	587
Market Destruction and Distortion Due to Conflict and Violence . . . . .	589
Crisis and Reform in the Financial-Cooperatives Sector . . . . .	589
The Public Sector . . . . .	590
Alternative Sources of Finance . . . . .	591
II. Main Issues . . . . .	592
III. Policy Recommendations . . . . .	595
The Role of the State: Banco Agrario, FINAGRO, and the Effectiveness of Public Interventions . . . . .	595
Modernizing Rural Risk Assessment and Risk Management . . . . .	597
Enabling the Use of Nontraditional Collateral . . . . .	598

Annex I. The Cooperative Sector . . . . .	599
Annex II. Public Sector Institutions and Programs in Rural Finance. . . . .	603
References . . . . .	607
Figure 1. Density of Retail Financial Outlets Supervised by the SuperBancaria . . . . .	588
Figure 2. Total Agricultural Sector Loan Disbursements—FINAGRO Discounted Funds and Own “Substitute” Funds . . . . .	593
Table 1. Cities and Towns with at Least One Bank Branch . . . . .	589
Table A.I.1. Financial Cooperatives and Commercial Banks, Balance Sheet Aggregates and Relative Comparison, US$ Millions as of 31 December of Each Year . . . . .	599
Table A.I.2. Number and Balance Sheet Aggregates of Cooperatives Supervised by the SES, US$ Millions as of December of Each Year . . . . .	600
Table A.I.3. Number and Balance Sheet Aggregates for a Subset of Cooperatives Consistently Reporting to the SES, US$ Millions as of December of Each Year . . . . .	601
Table A.II.1. Agricultural Sector Lending 1998–2001 (disbursements, US$ millions) . . . . .	604
Table A.II.2. Distribution of Financial System Loan Portfolio by Sector, 1996–98 . . . . .	605

Sharing the Fruits of Growth with All Colombians

21. Education . . . . .	611
I. The Big Picture: Colombia’s Education and Challenges . . . . .	611
II. Colombia’s Education System: Organization and Recent Trends. . . . .	613
Preschool Enrollment: Coverage is Low . . . . .	614
Primary Enrollment Trends: High Coverage, But Stagnating With 12 Percent Still Out of School . . . . .	615
Secondary Enrollment Trends: Coverage is Low Especially the Poor. . .	615
Higher Education Trends: Very Low Coverage and Favors the Rich. . .	616
III. Policy Issues and Options in the Education Sector. . . . .	617
IV. Government Strategy: Addressing Education Sector Issues . . . . .	629
Programs and Policies Responding to Issues of Educational Access and Equity. . . . .	629
Programs and Policies Responding to Problems of Quality and Sector Efficiency. . . . .	631
Programs Addressing Effectiveness of Decentralization . . . . .	632
V. Conclusions and Policy Recommendations . . . . .	634
Annex I. Possible Activities to be Implemented by the New Administration to Respond to Critical Education Sector Issues . . . . .	637

References . . . . .	650
Box 1. Hogares de Bienestar Infantil . . . . .	614
Box 2. Colombia's Escuela Nueva: A Tested Strategy for Reaching the Rural Poor and Improving Quality . . . . .	633
Box AI.1. Applying the Community College Model to Colombia . . . . .	639
Box AI.2. Mexico's Telesecundaria: Increasing Access to Secondary Education for the Rural Poor . . . . .	641
Figure 1. Impact of the 1998–99 Crisis on Primary Enrollment . . . . .	616
Figure 2. Higher Education Gross Enrollment in Selected Countries, 1980 and 1994 . . . . .	617
Figure 3. Fiscal Situation and Contributions, 1994–2000 . . . . .	634
Table 1. Average Math Achievement Test Scores of Eighth Graders, Selected Countries . . . . .	620
Table 2. Average Years of Education by Income Decile, 1991–97 . . . . .	623
Table 3. An Education Action Plan: Policy and Program Option Matrix . . .	636
Table A.1. Country Scores in 1998 UNESCO/OREALC—Assessment of Student Outcomes in Latin America and the Caribbean . . . . .	644
Table A.2. Distribution of Family Spending on Education, 1997 . . . . .	645
Table A.3. Distribution of the Primary and Secondary Education Subsidy by Income Decile, (constant 1996 pesos) . . . . .	646
Table A.4. Per Capita Transfer for Education by Department, 1994–98 . . . . .	648
22. Health . . . . .	653
I. Introduction . . . . .	653
II. Background . . . . .	657
Before the Reform . . . . .	657
The Reform: Law 100 of 1993 . . . . .	658
Implementation of the Reform . . . . .	661
Financing . . . . .	664
III. Sector Issues . . . . .	666
The Social Security Institute . . . . .	666
Public Hospitals . . . . .	670
Financing . . . . .	675
Health Insurance Coverage and Targeting . . . . .	680
Public Health: The Issue of Vaccination . . . . .	684
IV. Government Response and Current Reforms . . . . .	685
V. Policy Alternatives and Recommendations . . . . .	689
The Social Security Institute . . . . .	690
Public Hospitals . . . . .	693
Financing . . . . .	694
VI. Conclusion . . . . .	699
Appendix . . . . .	702
References . . . . .	706

Box 1.	The British Experience . . . . .	674
Figure 1.	Overall Health Performance and GNP Per Capita (PPP) . . . . .	655
Figure 2.	The Colombian Health System After the Reform of 1993 . . . . .	660
Figure 3.	Coverage Rates by Quintiles . . . . .	663
Figure 4.	Financing of the Health System. . . . .	665
Figure 5.	ISS Expenditures . . . . .	668
Figure 6.	Balance Sheet, Consolidated EPS-IPS . . . . .	670
Figure 7.	Income Statement, Consolidated EPS-IPS . . . . .	671
Figure 8.	Public Hospital Financing, Millions of 1999 Pesos . . . . .	673
Figure 9.	Allocation of Resources—Law 60 . . . . .	678
Figure 10.	SISBEN Classification Document Affiliation and Health Care Copayments in the Subsidized Regime . . . . .	682
Figure 11.	Coverage Levels for Three Doses of DTP Among Children Younger Than 1 Year of Age, Andean Region, 1990–2000 . . . . .	685
Figure 12.	Allocation of Resources—Law 715 . . . . .	686
Table 1.	Health Sector Indicators . . . . .	661
Table 2.	Number of Affiliates, 1996–2000 . . . . .	662
Table 3.	Changing Patterns of Health Insurance, Percentage of Affiliates . . . . .	664
Table 4.	Quality of Health Care, 1997 . . . . .	664
Table 5.	Waiting Time to Receive Treatment. . . . .	665
Table 6.	Transformation of the Fiscal Situation and the Transferred Rents, 1997–2000 . . . . .	666
Table 7.	Distribution of Total Expenditure and Total Income of Public Hospitals of Levels I, II, and III, 1993 and 1998 . . . . .	672
Table 8.	Real Public Hospital Expenditures as Percentage of GDP . . . . .	673
Table 9.	Evasion in the Contributory Regime (millions of 2000 pesos). . . . .	676
Table 10.	FOSYGA: Annual Budget FY 2000 (pesos) . . . . .	677
Table 11.	Situado Fiscal Transformed into Demand Subsidies (millions of 1999 pesos) . . . . .	679
Table 12.	Number of New Affiliates in the Subsidized Regime by Type of Action. . . . .	681
Table A1.	Option 1: ISS Health, Millions of US$ (in year 2000 dollars) . . . . .	702
Table A2.	Option 2: ISS Health, Millions of US$ (in year 2000 dollars, without including values of assets that could be sold). . . . .	703
Table A3.	Option 1: Timid Restructuring of Public Hospitals, Millions of US$ (in year 2000 dollars) . . . . .	704
Table A4.	Option 2: Bold Restructuring of Public Hospitals, Millions of US$ (in year 2000 dollars) . . . . .	705
23.	The Social Safety Net. . . . .	709
I.	The Social Safety Net in Colombia. . . . .	709
II.	Role of Social Safety Nets and Recent Policy Initiatives . . . . .	711
	Colombia's Social Assistance Programs . . . . .	711

Responding to the Recent Economic Crisis: The Social Support Network . . . . .	714
III. Main Sectoral Issues . . . . .	714
Issue 1: Sources of Vulnerability . . . . .	715
Issue 2: Social Risk Management . . . . .	719
Issue 3: Problems with Colombia's Social Safety Net . . . . .	721
IV. Options and Recommendations for Reforming Colombia's Safety Net . . . . .	723
Recommendation 1: Increase Resources for Social Assistance . . . . .	724
Recommendation 2: Focus on Streamlining the Existing System, not Creating Additional Programs . . . . .	725
Recommendation 3: Establish a Countercyclical Element of the Safety Net . . . . .	726
Recommendation 4: Addressing the Needs of the Internally Displaced Population . . . . .	727
V. Conclusions . . . . .	727
Annex . . . . .	729
References . . . . .	733
Table 1. Colombia's Main Social Assistance Programs . . . . .	712
Table 2. Perceptions of Vulnerabilities by Socioeconomic Level . . . . .	716
Table 3. Poverty Count for Different Subgroups of the Population, 1978–99 . . . . .	718
Table 4. Social Risk Management Strategies . . . . .	720
Table A. Social Risks and Social Protection Programs in Colombia, 2000 . . . . .	729
24. Higher Education . . . . .	737
I. Quality Expansion of Higher Education: Governance and Financing . . . . .	737
II. Emerging Trends in Colombia's Higher Education . . . . .	737
III. A Strong But Underperforming Sector . . . . .	740
IV. Policy Recommendations . . . . .	743
Ensure Clear and Progressive Governance . . . . .	743
Direct Public Resources to Its Core Responsibilities . . . . .	744
Stimulate Demand in Public and Private Tertiary Education Through Student Aid . . . . .	745
Promote Strategic Levels of Education . . . . .	746
Induce and Assure Quality . . . . .	746
Figure 1. Expansion in Tertiary Enrollment Led by the Private Sector (Private and Public Enrolment, 1980–2000) . . . . .	739
Table 1. Urban Labor Market Indicators, by Level of Education (2000) . . . . .	740
Table 2. Public Spending on Education (1990–99) . . . . .	741
25. Science and Technology . . . . .	749
I. Background on Science and Technology . . . . .	750

- II. Strengths and Weaknesses in Colombia’s Science and Technology Sector . . . . . 751
- III. Policy Recommendations . . . . . 753
- Figure 1. Strengths and Weaknesses in the Science and Technology Sector: Technology and Innovation Indicators . . . . . 751

- 26. Enhancing Employment Opportunities Through the Labor Markets. . . . . 755
- I. Context for Reform . . . . . 755
- II. Issues and Policy Options. . . . . 757
  - The System of Social Security . . . . . 757
  - Labor Unions, Wages and Industrial Relations . . . . . 759
  - The Labor Market, Informal Sector, and Small Firms . . . . . 761
  - Insufficient Human Capital Accumulation . . . . . 764
- III. Key Policy Conclusions . . . . . 766
- References . . . . . 766
- Table 1: Total Wedge on Payroll (as percent of wages) . . . . . 757
- Table 2. Marginal Rates of Return on an Additional Year of Education (percent for urban males age 25 to 60) . . . . . 764

- 27. Gender . . . . . 767
- I. Introduction . . . . . 767
- II. Advances Related to Gender. . . . . 768
  - Demographics and General Health . . . . . 768
  - Reproductive Health . . . . . 769
  - Education and Literacy . . . . . 770
  - Labor Force Participation . . . . . 770
  - Wage Gaps . . . . . 771
  - Rural Development. . . . . 772
- III. Gender Issues as They Relate to Colombia’s Economic and Social Development. . . . . 772
  - Conflict and Violence . . . . . 772
  - Displacement . . . . . 774
  - Domestic Violence . . . . . 774
  - Drugs, Alcohol Abuse, and Violence . . . . . 775
  - Reproductive and Sexual Health . . . . . 775
  - Male Dimensions of Reproductive and Sexual Health . . . . . 777
  - Family Size and Poverty. . . . . 778
  - Educational Attainment . . . . . 778
  - Household Structure . . . . . 779
- IV. Conclusions and Policy Recommendations . . . . . 780
  - Crime and Violence . . . . . 781
  - Reproductive and Sexual Health . . . . . 782

Support to Female Single-Parent Families . . . . .	782
References . . . . .	783
28. Indigenous Peoples and Afro-Colombian Communities . . . . .	787
I. Colombia: A Pluriethnic and Multicultural Nation . . . . .	788
The Indigenous Population . . . . .	788
The Afro-Colombian Population . . . . .	788
Progress in Recognition of the Rights of Ethnic Groups . . . . .	789
II. The Rights of Ethnic Groups in the Context of the Political Conflict and Economic Crisis. . . . .	790
Surveying and Consolidating the Territorial Rights of Ethnic Groups . . . . .	790
Natural Resources . . . . .	794
Territorial Pressure on the Indigenous Homelands and Collective Territories of the Afro-Colombian Communities . . . . .	796
The Vision of the Future for Ethnic Groups . . . . .	803
III. Policy Recommendations . . . . .	805
Respect for New Models for Living Together and Human Rights Protection for Ethnic Groups . . . . .	805
Protection of Social, Economic, and Cultural Rights of Ethnic Groups . . . . .	806
Conservation and Sustainable Use of Natural Resources of the Collective Territories and Indigenous Homelands. . . . .	808
Annex I. Legal Advances in Colombia as Related to the Rights of Ethnic Groups . . . . .	810
Annex II. . . . .	814
Annex III. . . . .	818
Annex IV. . . . .	821
References . . . . .	823
Box 1. National Development Plan for the Afro-Colombian Population: Building a Pluriethnic Nation: Poverty and Human Development Indicators, 1998–2002 . . . . .	790
Table 1. Legal Situation of Indigenous Land Tenure in Colombia, December 2001. . . . .	792
Table 2. Comparison of the Legal Situation of Indigenous Land Tenure in Colombia Between 1980 and 2001. . . . .	793
Table 3. Natural Parks that Overlap with Indigenous Territories. . . . .	795
Table A.II.1. Ethnic Groups and Indigenous Population by Department, 2001. . . . .	814
Table A.II.2 Ethnic Groups of Colombia, Population and Area, 2001 . . . . .	815
Table A.III.1 Some Basic Demographic Indicators in Four Indigenous Regions, Piñeros Marion, and Ruiz Magda, 1998 . . . . .	818

Table A.III.2 Colombia, Population and Indigenous Area and the Population and Total Extension by Department, December 2001 . . . . .	819
Table A.IV.1 ICN Resources Assigned to Homelands 1994–2001 (2001 pesos) . . . . .	821
Table A.IV.2 Distribution of Resources by Fiscal Sector Prioritized by Indigenous Authorities, 1994–99 . . . . .	822
29. Forced Internal Displacement . . . . .	825
I. Summary . . . . .	825
II. Background . . . . .	826
Causes of Displacement . . . . .	828
Responsible Parties . . . . .	829
Estimation of the Magnitude of the Problem . . . . .	829
Characteristics of the Displaced Population . . . . .	832
Lost Property . . . . .	833
Areas Affected by Displacement . . . . .	833
Consequences of Displacement . . . . .	834
The Government's Response . . . . .	835
Other Institutions Working on the Issue . . . . .	836
III. Main Issues . . . . .	837
Issue 1: Lack of Priority to the Problem of Forced Displacement both Nationally and Internationally . . . . .	837
Issue 2: Lack of Preventive Measures to Reduce or Mitigate the Impact of the Armed Conflict, the Main Cause of Displacement . . . . .	838
Issue 3: Insufficient Understanding of the Size and Characteristics of the Internally Displaced Population . . . . .	839
Issue 4: Little Success in Reestablishment and Socioeconomic Stabilization of the Population . . . . .	840
IV. Recommendations . . . . .	841
Recommendation 1: Make the Problem of Forced Displacement a Priority and Cover the Displaced Population According to their Needs in the Governmental Programs . . . . .	842
Recommendation 2: Prevent the Risks of Displacement by Implementing Effective Measures at the Local Level and Protecting the Assets of Displaced People . . . . .	843
Recommendation 3: Adopt a Common Methodology Among Key Stakeholders for Estimating the Size and Characteristics of the Internally Displaced Population . . . . .	843
Recommendation 4: Create Realistic Incentives and Opportunities for the Reestablishment—Return, Relocation, Integration—of the IDP . . . . .	844
References . . . . .	846
Figure 1. Urban—Rural Population . . . . .	827

Figure 2. Displaced Population Accumulated Between 1985–2000 . . . . .	830
Figure 3. Plan of Action for the Prevention and Attention of the Displacement. . . . .	836
Table 1. Internally Displaced Population . . . . .	830
Table 2. Displaced Population by Country . . . . .	831
30. Natural Resources and Global Commons: Capital for Sustainable Development. . . . .	849
I. Background. . . . .	849
Contribution to Global Biodiversity . . . . .	849
Contribution to Global Carbon Sinks . . . . .	850
Contribution to CO <sub>2</sub> Mitigation . . . . .	850
Contribution to International Waters. . . . .	851
II. Past and Recent Policy Initiatives . . . . .	852
Biodiversity Strategy . . . . .	852
Regime for Land Conservation . . . . .	854
National Strategy for Use of the Clean Development Mechanism (CDM) . . . . .	855
III. Main Issues . . . . .	856
Unsustainable Use of Biodiversity (Forced Extinction of Species and Habitats . . . . .	857
Poor Understanding of Carbon Sequestration and Mitigation Potential . . . . .	859
Poor Linkage Between Global Issues and Local Development . . . . .	860
Social Conflict and Use of Natural Resources . . . . .	861
IV. Policy Recommendations . . . . .	862
Invest in Conservation and Sustainable Use of Natural Capital . . . . .	862
References . . . . .	866
Figure 1. Gross Potential of Annual CER Exports from Colombia (excluding oil) . . . . .	852

Building a Government of Quality

31. At the Crossroads of Decentralization, Recentralization, Federalization . . . . .	871
Introduction: The Gap Between Objectives and Achievements . . . . .	871
I. Colombia: A Country Committed to Decentralization Groundbreaking Reforms, and a Precedent-Setting Decentralization Framework . . . . .	872
Unsatisfactory Fiscal Results . . . . .	875
Insufficient Capacity Strengthening . . . . .	876
Decentralization Did Not Meet Democracy and Governance . . . . .	877

- II. Factors that Account for Partial Failure of Decentralization in Colombia . . . . . 877
  - Fiscal Decentralization Factor . . . . . 877
  - Internal Conflict . . . . . 885
  - Weak Governance at the Central Level . . . . . 887
- III. Pros and Cons of Main Policy Courses . . . . . 888
  - Option 1: Partial, Explicit Reversal of Decentralization . . . . . 889
  - Option 2: Streamlining and Reinvigorating Decentralization . . . . . 890
  - Option 3: Let Policies other than Decentralization Silently Operate the Reform of the Decentralization Process . . . . . 891
- IV. Recommendations . . . . . 892
  - Recommendations Regarding Fiscal Decentralization Issues . . . . . 892
    - Proceed with Market-Oriented Regulations for Subnational Borrowing . . . . . 893
  - Recommendations Regarding Administrative Decentralization Issues . . . . . 894
  - Recommendations Regarding Political Decentralization Issues . . . . . 894
  - Recommendations Regarding Context Factors for Decentralization in Colombia . . . . . 895
- 32. The Judiciary . . . . . 897
  - I. Background . . . . . 897
  - II. Enhancing the Constitutional Framework . . . . . 899
  - III. Issues Related to the New Constitutional Framework . . . . . 902
    - Increased Juridical Insecurity . . . . . 902
    - The Growing Governance Quagmire . . . . . 903
    - Managing the Inefficiencies of Success: The Protection Action . . . . . 903
    - Reducing Impunity . . . . . 905
    - Increasing Efficiency, Quality, and Integrity . . . . . 913
  - IV. Conclusions and Recommendations . . . . . 926
- References . . . . . 928
- Figure 1. Labor Justice Demand (1994–99) . . . . . 904
- Figure 2. Protection Actions on Labor Matters (1995–99) . . . . . 904
- Figure 3. Budgetary Appropriations (1992–2000) . . . . . 906
- Figure 4. Workload of Preliminary Investigations . . . . . 908
- Figure 5. Output at the Criminal Instruction Phase . . . . . 908
- Figure 6. Criminal Justice Demand . . . . . 909
- Figure 7. Evolution of the Homicide Rate in Colombia, 1993–99 . . . . . 909
- Figure 8. International Comparison on Homicide Rates, 1998– . . . . . 911
- Figure 9. Recurrent Expenditure of the Judiciary, 1992–98 . . . . . 914
- Figure 10. Investment Expenditures of the Judiciary, 1992–98 . . . . . 914
- Figure 11. Institutional Capacity, 1998 . . . . . 915
- Figure 12. Comparison of Caseloads in Andean Countries, 1992–98 . . . . . 916

Figure 13. Judiciary's Budgetary Allocations, 1998 . . . . .	916
Figure 14. Workload Evolution Ordinary Jurisdiction, 1993–99 . . . . .	917
Figure 15. Average Process Duration Civil Procedures . . . . .	918
Figure 16. Critical Factors Affecting the Quality of Justice . . . . .	919
Figure 17. Critical Factors Affecting the Quality of Justice . . . . .	920
Figure 18. Changes in Stock of Civil Cases (by type of proceedings), 1992–98 . . . . .	921
Figure 19. Public Perceptions on the Independence of the Judiciary . . . . .	922
Figure 20. Entrepreneur Perceptions on the Independence of the Judiciary . . .	923
Figure 21. Evolution of Judicial Branch's Expenditure. . . . .	924
Table 1. Judicial Human Resources (1985–95) . . . . .	907

33. Corruption, Institutional Performance, and Governance:

Developing an Anticorruption Strategy for Colombia. . . . . 931

I. Background. . . . .	931
II. Main Conclusions of the Empirical Study. . . . .	932
State Capture and Governance. . . . .	933
Moderate Incidence of Administrative Corruption . . . . .	941
The Purchase of Public Administration Posts . . . . .	941
The Perception of Institutional Performance. . . . .	941
Institutional Performance . . . . .	944
Presence of Corruption at the Regional Level . . . . .	946
Judicial Power and Corruption . . . . .	946
Greater Impact of Administrative Corruption on the Poor . . . . .	948
III. An International Comparison of Governance . . . . .	948
IV. A Strategy for Integrity . . . . .	950
References . . . . .	955
Figure 1. Corruption: Comparison of Colombia, Ecuador, Honduras, and Peru . . . . .	934
Figure 2. Level of State Capture/Undue Ability of Elites to Influence High-Level Decisions of Authorities in Colombia, Honduras, and Peru (according to companies, 2001) . . . . .	935
Figure 3. How Much Ability Do the Following Actors Have To Use Bribes To Influence the Decisions of High-Level State Authorities? . . . . .	936
Figure 4. Meritocracy versus Presence of Corruption (Central Level) . . . . .	938
Figure 5. Level of Politicization versus Presence of Corruption . . . . .	939
Figure 6. Restrictions on Competition for Public Contracts . . . . .	940
Figure 7. Quality and Presence of Corruption in Public Services . . . . .	942
Figure 8. Quality and Presence of Corruption in Public Services . . . . .	943
Figure 9. The Ten Most-Honest Public Institutions: How Dishonest/ Honest Is Each of the Following Institutions? . . . . .	944
Figure 10. The Ten Least-Honest Public Institutions: How Dishonest/ Honest Is Each of the Following Institutions? . . . . .	945

Figure 11. Evaluation of the Judicial Sector . . . . .	947
Figure 12. Indicators of Governance in Colombia: 1998–2001 (based on more than 175 countries) . . . . .	949
Figure 13. Governance Indicators for 2001 (based on a study of 175 countries) . . . . .	950
Table 1. Strengths and Weaknesses of Public Institutions, Colombia . . . . .	946
Table 2. Corruption and Level of Government . . . . .	947
34. Reform of Public Administration and of the State . . . . .	957
I. Background to Current Challenges . . . . .	957
II. Government Proposal for a New Public Sector Reform . . . . .	961
Strategic Options . . . . .	961
Concept of Reform . . . . .	965
Objectives, Strategy, and Goals of the Reform Agenda . . . . .	966
Choice of Instruments, Risks, and Costs . . . . .	967
Stages of Reform . . . . .	974
Formulation Unit and Management Unit for the Reform . . . . .	975
Monitoring, Evaluation, Dissemination . . . . .	976
III. Synthesis of Recommendations . . . . .	979
Table 1. Examples of Objective and Goal Definition . . . . .	968
Table 2. Tools, Projects, and Actions Regarding the Transversal Reforms of the Colombian Public Administration (with multilateral financing) . . . . .	973
35. Budgetary Institutions . . . . .	981
I. Introduction . . . . .	981
II. Budgets and Fiscal Balance . . . . .	982
The Issue . . . . .	982
Ongoing Actions . . . . .	983
Recommendations . . . . .	983
III. Control of the Budget . . . . .	984
The Issue . . . . .	984
Ongoing Actions . . . . .	985
Recommendations . . . . .	985
IV. The Planning and Budgetary Process . . . . .	986
The Issue . . . . .	986
Ongoing Actions . . . . .	987
Recommendations . . . . .	987
V. Budgetary Inflexibility . . . . .	988
The Issue . . . . .	988
Ongoing Actions . . . . .	988
Recommendations . . . . .	989
VI. Organizational Adjustment . . . . .	990

The Issue . . . . . 990
Ongoing Actions. . . . . 990
Recommendations. . . . . 991
VII. Information Management and Use . . . . . 992
The Issue . . . . . 992
Ongoing Actions. . . . . 992
Recommendations. . . . . 993
References . . . . . 993
Table 1. National Budget Arrears, 1990–2002 . . . . . 982
Table 2. Budgetary Inflexibilities . . . . . 989