

CONTENTS

	Acknowledgments	xi
	Contributors	xiii
	Abbreviations	xv
1	Services Trade for Zambia's Development: An Overview Aaditya Mattoo and Lucy Payton	1
2	Services in the Zambian Economy Jens Arnold and Aaditya Mattoo	61
3	Telecommunications: The Persistence of Monopoly Jens Arnold, Boutheina Guermazi, and Aaditya Mattoo	101
4	Financial Services: Dealing with Limited and Unequal Access José de Luna Martínez	155
5	Air Transport: Revitalizing Yamoussoukro Charles Schlumberger	191
6	Tourism: Unfulfilled Promise Olivier Cattaneo	213
7	Migration from Zambia: Ensuring Temporariness through Cooperation Mohammad Amin and Aaditya Mattoo	259
Boxes
1.1	The Least Developed Countries and the WTO Services Negotiations	4
1.2	Trade in Services: Four Modes of Supply	10
1.3	Lessons from Privatization	18

1.4	From Colonialism to Kaundian Socialism, from Conditionality to Empowerment: The Present in Historical Context	20
1.5	The Retail Distribution Sector in Zambia: Lessons for the Interplay between Services and Goods Reform	22
1.6	Some Observations on the Political Economy of Reform	34
2.1	The Potential Gains from Services Reform: International Evidence	74
3.1	The Early History of Telecommunications in Zambia	105
3.2	The Case for Reform: A Comparison of Mauritania and Ethiopia	119
3.3	Estimated Gains from Full Competition in Telecommunications Services in Zambia	121
4.1	Testimony of the Difficulties Faced by a Banker in Serving Low-Income Households in Zambia Because of the Know Your Customer (KYC) Rules	180
4.2	Credit Guarantee Scheme Operations in Zambia (1987–93)	184
5.1	Key Objectives in the National Air Transport Policy, 2002	200
5.2	Technical Assistance for Regulatory Oversight: The Case of Mozambique	204
5.3	ATC Infrastructure Financing: The Case of Tanzania	206
6.1	Evaluating Zambia's Performance and Potential in Tourism Services	224
6.2	Fighting Informality by Easing Business Registration: The Examples of Vietnam and Uganda	231
6.3	The Regulatory Guillotine: A Model for Zambia?	232
6.4	Level 1: General Level of Taxes for Tourism Activities	234
6.5	Level 2: Subsector and Geographic Tax Exemptions and Other Incentives of Relevance to Tourism	237
6.6	Level 3: Individually Negotiated Tax Exemptions and Other Incentives of Relevance to Tourism	238
6.7	Public Sector Organizations	240
6.8	Private Sector Organizations	240
7.1	A Model Agreement for the Migration of the Unskilled	268
7.2	Past Experience with Managing Temporary Migration of the Unskilled	269
7.3	Model Agreement for the Migration of the Skilled	286
Figures
1.1	Structure of the Exercise	7
2.1	Postindependence Growth by Broad Sector	62
2.2	Value Added by Broad Sector and the Contribution of Different Services Sectors	63
2.3	Zambia: Metal Exports and Nontraditional Exports	65
2.4	Cost Structures: Firm-Level Average by Country	66
2.5	The Productivity of Zambian Firms in International Comparison	68

2.6	The Balassa-Gap for Select Countries (reflecting the relative cost of services) and Export Performance	73
2.7	The Composition of Zambia's Services Trade	76
2.8	International Comparison: Services Exports per Capita	77
2.9	The Distribution of FDI Inflows by Broad Sectors and across Services Sectors in 2001	90
2.10	International Comparison: Access to Telecommunications Services	92
2.11	International Comparison: Access to Financial Services	93
2.12	Collateral Required to Obtain a Loan	94
2.13	International Comparison: Access to Air Transport	94
2.14	International Comparison: Access to Education Services	95
2.15	International Comparison: Access to Health Services	96
2.16	Regional Disparities in Teledensity	97
3.1	Access to Telecommunications Services	106
3.2	High International Call Prices Compared with Selected Countries in Africa and Middle East	107
3.3	Zambia Has One of the Lowest Residential Connection and Local Call Rates in the SADC Region	111
3.4	Mobile Rates Are Higher in Zambia	113
3.5	The International Gateway Monopoly and Weak Regulation Adversely Affect Competition in Other Segments	115
3.6	Variations in the Level of Competition by Segment and by Market	116
3.7	International Calls Are Lower with Competition	117
3.8	The Introduction of Competition Often Marks the Start of a Significant Increase in Fixed-Line Penetration	118
3.9	Percentage of International Traffic Traveling over IP	125
3.10	Percentage of Countries with Fully or Partially Privatized Incumbents	126
3.11	Effects of Sequencing on Mainlines	138
4.1	Size of Zambia's Financial System	162
4.2	Percentage of Population with a Bank Deposit Account in Africa	162
4.3	Distribution of Bank Deposits in Zambia, March 2006	163
4.4	Real Value of a K 320,000 Deposit	164
4.5	Number of Bank Branches in Zambia, 1990–2004	166
4.6	Zambia: Domestic Credit to the Private Sector by Banks	167
4.7	Distribution of Bank Loans and Advances, March 2006	168
4.8	Distribution of Bank Credit to Private Firms in Zambia, 2005	169
4.9	Assets of MFIs (as percent of assets of all financial institutions)	170
4.10	Sequencing of Financial Sector Reform in Zambia	172
4.11	Zambia: Growth in the Number of Banks, 1990–2004	172
4.12	Zambia: Balance Sheet Structure of Banks, 2002–05	176
5.1	Passenger Movements at Lusaka Airport	195

5.1	International Freight, 1999–2005	199	4.1	Banking Institutions in Zambia, 2006	160
6.1	Tourism Bed Nights, 1999–2003	220	4.2	Minimum Balances to Open and Maintain a Bank Account, March 2006	165
6.2	National Park Tourist Entry Trends by Destination, 2000 and 2003	221	4.3	Zambia: Macroeconomic Indicators, 1997–2005	175
6.3	Cost of Regulatory Compliance, 2005	229	A-1.1	Banks Licensed in Zambia, 1906–94	189
6.4	Constraints to Tourism Development as Identified by the Hospitality Sector in Zambia	247	A-1.2	Banks in Liquidation	190
7.1	Tertiary to Secondary Migration Rate, 2000	265	6.1	Species Diversity in Southern Africa	216
7.2	Tertiary to Primary Emigration Rate, 2000	266	6.2	UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Southern Africa, 2006	217
7.3	Skilled Migration and Human Capital in Africa, 2000	270	6.3	Weaknesses of Zambia Competitors	218
7.4	Nurses Recruited in the United Kingdom, 2000	271	6.4	Zambian National Parks Tourist Entry	221
7.5	Annual Health Care and Welfare Graduation Rate, 1998–2003	274	6.5	Employment Distribution in Nature-Based Tourism Activity Providers, by Region	223
7.6	Students in Zambia by Discipline, 1998/99	276	6.6	Annual Procedure Costs for a Five-Room Guest House	228
7.7	Temporary versus Permanent Migration from the Viewpoint of the Host Country	284	6.7	Livingstone City Council Charges on Tourism	230
Tables			6.8	VAT Rates in the South African Region	236
1.1	Restrictions on Trade and Foreign Presence	14	6.9	Regulatory and Governmental Bodies as Seen by Enterprises in the Tourism Sector	241
1.2	Key Recommendations, by Sector	26	6.10	Public-Private Arrangements in National Park Management	243
1.3	Priorities for International Engagement in Alternative Forums	42	6.11	HIV and Malaria Prevalence	248
A-2.1	Zambia—Schedule of Specific Commitments	57	7.1	Migrants per 10,000 of Source Country Population, 2000	264
2.1	Sources of Growth in Zambia, 1965–2002	64	7.2	Emigration Rates by Education in 2000, SADC Countries	264
2.2	Services as a Constraint to the Operation of Firms	65	7.3	Human Capital in 2000, SADC Countries	272
2.3	Use and Cost of Loans	67	7.4	Physicians in Africa, 2004	273
2.4	Indicators of Weak Services Performance and Agricultural Productivity Are Negatively Correlated	70	7.5	Government Expenditure on Education in 2000, SADC Countries	275
2.5	Zambia's Services Export Specialization in a Cross-Section of Countries	79	A-1.1	Net Immigration Figures	289
2.6	Services Policy in Zambia: Past and Present	80	A-1.2	Average Annual Net Remittance Inflows, 1994–2001	290
3.1	The Market Players	109
3.2	Ratio of International to Local Tariffs	124
3.3	Alternative Governance Models	127
3.4	Phone Charges in Zambia	131
3.5	Minimum-Subsidy Auctions for Public Rural Telephones, Selected Countries, 2004	134
3.6	Summary of Universal Access Targets: Draft Universal Access Policy	136
3.7	Examples of Precommitments to Liberalization in Basic Telecommunications	143
3.8	Action Plan for Implementation and Possible External Support	146
A-2.1	African Experience in IGW License Fees	149
A-3.1	Restrictions on Foreign Telecommunication Ownership in Selected Countries	151			