

INDICE

1.The context
Social participation in Colombia	1
Participation and the world bank	3
The dialogue between Colombia and the world bank	4
2. The plan to prepare the country assistance strategy	5
Workshop models
3. The implementation experience
The country team workshop	7
The desired future	9
A look at the past	10
The action strategy	11
The government workshop
The desired future	12
A look at the past	13
The action strategy	17
Workshops with civil society representatives
Workshops model and methodology	20
Phase I. Brainstorming to identify key issues
Phase II. Discussion in small groups on the topics identified	21
Phase III. Vote to decide on the order of priorities
The desired future	22
Role of different actors: government, private sector, civil society, and multilateral organizations	24
The action strategy
Final recommendations	25
The joint government-world bank workshop
Methodology of the workshop	26
The strategic objectives
Priority areas of CAS	27
The results for the strategic objectives	28
The consistency of the portfolio with proposed strategic objectives and results	30
Construction of the logical framework	31
Bank and government of Colombia Discussion of the draft CAS	33
4. Lessons from the experience
Main feature of the process	34
Main Outcomes	36
Limitations	37
Major challenges ahead	39
Annexes:
1. World bank CAS-country team workshops, October 30-31, 1996	40
2. World bank CAS-government workshops, Santafé de Bogotá	42
3. World bank CAS-consultation with civil society on development challenges	48
4. Consultation with Colombian civil society, Santafé de Bogotá December 2-3, 1996	50
5. World bank-CAS-joint government and world bank workshop Santafé	52

de Bogotá
6. World bank CAS-consistency between strategic objectives and existing projects	55
7. World bank CAS-plan for completion of logical framework	56
8. World bank CAS-final meeting, 1998-200	57
9. World bank CAS-final version of logical framework matrix for three of the areas	59