

INDICE

Acknowledgements	v
Foreword	ix
Executive	xiii
Abbreviations and acronyms	xx
1. India's development record
From independence through the 1980s	1
The 1990s: far-reaching reform	2
Strong foundations for development A large, unfinished reform agenda	5
2. The India-world bank historical relationship
External development assistance and the banks contribution Through the 19760s: a cyclical relationship	9
The 1980s: lending push in a poor policy environment	10
The 1990s: enhanced relevance of the bank assistance strategy	12
3. The banks products and services
Analytical services: high quality nu limited outreach	15
Lending priorities: toward social sectors	16
Completed project performance: mediocre	17
Ongoing portfolio: sound Efficiency: adequate	21
Aid coordination and effectiveness: uneven	22
4. Selected sectors and topics
Overview of sectoral assistance	25
Public financial accountability: a promising beginning	32
Mainstreaming participation, but resettlement safeguards are still contentious	33
Gender: unsuccessful mainstreaming	34
5. The development effectiveness of bank assistance
The elusive counterfactual	35
Development effectiveness: improving	36
Bank and borrower performance: mixed	37
6. Improving assistance for higher reach and impact
Lending instruments	39
Lending linkage State focus Program priorities	40
Analytical work Participation Safeguards Aid condition	41
The bank efficiency	42
7. The clients evaluation of bank assistance
Civil society's views from the CAE/CAS synthesis workshop	43
Feedback from the India-based CAE advisers	44
Feedback from the government	45
Annexes
A: Reference tables	47

Table A.1: economic and social indicators for India and selected comparators	48
Table A.2: OED summary ratings for India	52
Table A.3: portfolio of bank lending to India (exit/approval FY90-00)	53
B: Report from the committee on development effectiveness	57
Endnotes	60
Bibliography	64