

INDICE

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
About the authors	xvii
Executive summary	xxi
Acronyms and abbreviations	xxvii
Glossary	xxviii
1. Overview	1
Chapter 2: initial conditions for pension reform	2
Chapter 3: taking stock of pension systems in the middle east and North Africa	6
Chapter 4: a framework for reform	10
Chapter 5: improving the management of pension funds
Chapter 6: progress to date and prospects	16
2. The initial conditions for pension reform
Demographics	21
Macroeconomics	29
Overview of the financial sector	36
Conclusions	45
3. Mandatory pension systems in the middle east and North Africa
Institutional organization and coverage	49
Size and shape of the schemes	58
incentives	70
Equity within and across genders	73
Pension costs, financial sustainability, and fiscal implications	79
Conclusions	86
4. General guidelines for a comprehensive reform program	93
Choosing the mandate of the public pension system and implementation mechanisms	94
Bringing current defined-benefit, pay-as-you-go systems up to the standard	102
Benefits and costs of higher funding	116
Expanding coverage to the vulnerable and poor. A role for social pensions?	123
Improving the institutional configuration, administration, and regulation of pension systems	130
5. Management of the public pension funds	139
Lessons from international experience in pension fund management	140
Pension fund management in the middle east and north Africa region	146
Improving the management of public pension funds: constraints and opportunities	159
Conclusions	167
6. Progress to date and prospects
Countries in the early stages of reform	169
Countries in Motion	171
Countries leading pension reform	173
Conclusions	178
Appendices

A Demographic indicators
B Methodology for demographic and employment projections
Life expectancy, total fertility rate, and population projections	185
Labor force projections
Unemployment projections	187
Economic effects of the demographic transition	190
Coverage rate projections	191
C Main parameters of pension schemes in the middle east and North Africa	194
D Tax treatment of pension systems	211
E Basic formulas and mathematical results used in the analysis
Equivalence of the standard defined-benefit pension formula and the formula used in a point system	217
F Demographic and financial data on pension funds	223
References	225
Index	233