

INDICE

Executive summary	3
Introduction
1.1 Purpose
1.2 Background	9
1.2.1 The rise of social issues
1.2.2 Business partners for development
1.3 Approach	10
2 Wider context
2.1 Overview of the las Cristinas project	11
2.1.1 Project objectives
2.1.2 The role of social issues
2.2 Development context
2.2.1 National economic and political context	13
2.2.2 Regional background	14
2.2.3 Local health care	16
2.3 Business context
2.3.1 Mining challenges at las Cristinas	17
2.3.2 Placer Domes social policy
2.4 Prior stakeholder relationships
2.4.1 Local communities and MINCA	18
2.4.2 Local communities and government
2.4.3 Relationships between local communities
2.4.4 Relationship between MINCA and government	19
3 Partnership process and structure
3.1 Process of partnership development	21
3.1.1 Partnership exploration
3.1.2 Partnership building	22
3.1.3 Partnership maintenance	23
3.2 Partnership structure and function	24
3.2.1 Linkage between the Partners
3.2.2 Shared vision	25
3.2.3 Objectives
3.2.4 Boundaries	26
3.2.5 Activities roles and resources
3.2.6 Grievance mechanism and communication
3.3 Comments on partnership structure and future challenges	33
3.3.1 SWOT analysis	34
3.3.2 The withdrawal of placer dome from MINCA	37
4 Outcomes of the partnership
4.1 Approach	39
4.2 Overview of impact
4.2 Business benefits
4.3.1 Most likely alternative scenarios	43
4.3.2 Corporate reputation
4.3.3 Competitive advantage
4.3.4 Investment risk	44
4.3.5 Cost-effectiveness of social investment	46

4.3.6 Net benefit to MINCA	50
4.3 Development impact
4.4.1 Access to health services	51
4.4.2 Time-to-benefit
4.4.3 Sustainability of CHC
4.4.4 Improved infrastructure
4.4.5 Capacity building/community participation	52
4.4 Good governance
4.5.1 Visibility in discharging civic duties	53
4.5.2 Interaction between government agencies
4.5.3 Responsiveness to local needs
4.5.4 Cost-effectiveness of public spending	54
5 Conclusions
5.1 Main achievements of the partnership
5.1.1 Cost effectiveness of social investments	63
5.1.2 Social license to operate and project attractiveness
5.1.3 Higher development impact
5.1.4 5.1.4 Social capital & human resource development
5.1.5 Communication and cooperation
5.2 Challenges remaining
5.2.1 Perceptions of other parties	64
5.2.2 Placer domes exit from MINCA
5.2.3 The executive committee
5.2.4 Government
5.3 Broader lessons	65
5.3.1 Some prerequisites and key success factors for tri-sector partnerships
Appendix 1: Location map of Las Cristinas	69
Appendix 2: Gold price 1990-1999	70
Appendix 3: (1 st) Memorandum of understanding	71
Appendix 4: Health centre dedication and 2 nd Mou	83
Appendix 5: List of interviewees-February 2001	87
Appendix 6. Contributions with estimated $ value provided to the health partnership for CHC construction	88