

INDICE

Foreword	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Author biographies	xvii
Acronyms and abbreviations	xix
1. Improvising education, Health care, and social assistance for the poor	1
Daniel Cotlear
Executive summary and introduction
Coverage, outcomes, and equity	4
Public expenditures in education, health, and social assistance	9
Teachers and health workers: as low-level equilibrium	18
The accountability framework	20
Attempts to break to low-level equilibrium	24
The need for standards of service	35
Conclusions and recommendations	37
2. Public expenditure in the social sectors
José R. López-Cálix	43
Main policy recommendations	45
Main diagnostics	47
Review of research-based Peruvian literature	61
Policy recommendations	69
3. Education sector: standards, accountability, and support
Luis Crouch	71
Main policy recommendations
The accountability triangle approach in education	73
Issues and analysis	75
Good set of recommendations and research-based diagnostics Already exist	94
Recommendations in greater detail	101
4. Pro-poor policies in the Peruvian public health sector
Betty Alvarado Perez and Ronny Lenz	107
Summary of recommendations	108
Focus of the accountability triangle	110
Principal findings	112
Innovations and challenges in the management and financing of health care	123
Review of the Peruvian literature on the health system Recommendations	144
Annex-services covered by SIS	152
5. The social safety net
Cornelia Michaela Tesliuc	153
Main policy recommendations	154
The accountability triangle approach	156
Key issues of the social safety net sector	159
Review of research-based Peruvian literature	179
Policy recommendations	186
6. Human resources in public health and education in Peru	191

Richard Webb and Sofia Valencia
Conclusions and policy implications	192
Background	197
Low-level equilibrium	201
Anti-poor bias	238
7. Voice in the accountability of social policy
William Reuben and Leah Belsky	245
Main policy recommendations
Conceptual framework: the accountability triangle approach	247
Issues and analysis	251
Many diagnostics and recommendations already exist in Peru	284
Specific recommendations to improve voice in the social sectors	284
References	291