

Table of Contents

Preface	v	III. The Evolution of Commercial Bank Debt Restructuring	85
Acronyms and Abbreviations	vi	IV. The Secondary Market in Developing-Country Debt	109
Part I. External Finance for Developing Countries		V. Portfolio Investment in Developing Countries	113
Summary	3	VI. Debt Burden Indicators and Country Classification	127
Recent Trends in External Finance	3	Part II. Summary Tables
Portfolio Investment and Renewed Private Capital Flows	4	Methodology	143
External Debt of the Former Soviet Union	6	Sources and Definitions	147
Is the Debt Crisis Over?	7	Groups of Reporters	153
Lessons of the Crisis	10	Geographic Groups	153
Chapter 1. Developments in External Debt and Aggregate Flows in 1991 and 1992	13	Income Groups	154
Debt Flows and Stocks	13	Other Analytical Groups	155
Aggregate Resource Flows	16	Private Nonguaranteed Debt: Reporting	157
Financial Markets	25	Private Nonguaranteed Debt: Nonreporting	157
Debt Restructuring Countries	25	Non-DRS Economies	158
Chapter 2. Debt and the Former Soviet Union	29	Summary Tables	159
Overview	29	All Countries Reporting to the World Bank	160
The Debt Buildup, 1987-91	29	Africa, South of the Sahara	164
The Liquidity Crisis	31	East Asia and Pacific	168
Debt Rescheduling and Official Finance in 1992		Europe and Central Asia	172
Payment Obligations in 1992	32	Latin America and the Caribbean	176
Debt Sharing Encounters Difficulties	34	North Africa and the Middle East	180
Debt Management and Reporting	38	South Asia	184
Chapter 3. Ten Years of the Debt Crisis	41	Severely Indebted Low-Income Countries	188
How It Happened	41	Severely Indebted Middle-Income Countries	192
The Debt Crisis	46	Moderately Indebted Low-Income Countries	196
Managing the Crisis	49	Moderately Middle-Income Countries	200
Beyond the Crisis	59	Other Countries	204
Appendixes		Low-Income Countries	208
I. Debt Trends in 1991	63	Middle-Income Countries	212
II. The Evolution of Official Debt Restructuring	73	Eastern Europe plus Former Soviet Union	216
		Special Program of Assistance	220