

9	Preface
11	Acknowledgements
Part I
	Overview
14	Harnessing Knowledge for Judicial Reform
Part II
20	Opening and Introductory Remarks The importance of Knowledge Sharing in Promoting the Rule of Law Ko-Yung Tung Vice President and General Counsel, The World Bank
21	Development Challenges: Latin America Needs Professional Judiciaries David de Ferranti Regional Vice President for Latin America and the Caribbean, The World Bank
23	Background and Opportunities for Knowledge Interchange through Iudicis Iván Rincón Urdaneta President of the Supreme Tribunal of Justice of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

- 26 Salient Features and Guidelines of the IUDICIS Network
Cándido Pérez Contreras
General Manager, Supreme Tribunal of Justice of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Part III

Viewpoints and Ideas

- 32 Argentina:
Distance Learning a Real Necessity
Laura Balart, Supreme Court of Argentina
- 33 Brazil:
Automation of Electoral Courts and Other Plans
Salomão Almeida, Supreme Tribunal of Justice of Brazil
- 35 Colombia:
Modernization of the Judicial Branch
Fernando Arboleda Ripoll, Justice of the Supreme Court of Colombia
- 35 Costa Rica:
The Need to Coordinate Regional Efforts
Luis Paulino Mora Mora, President of the Supreme Court of Costa Rica
- 36 Guatemala:
Taking Pluricultural Realities into Account
Jose Quesada, Former President of the Supreme Court of Guatemala
- 38 El Salvador:
A National Project Underway
René Fortín Magana, Justice of the Supreme Court of El Salvador
- 39 Spain:
Justice with Liberty and the Recognition of Human Rights
Bruno Otero, Member of the Commission of the General Judicial Council of Spain
- 41 Panama:
Towards Modernization
Mirtza Angelica Franceschi de Aguilera, President of the Supreme Court of Panama

- 42 Nicaragua:
Challenges of Formal and Traditional Justice
Kent Henriquez Clair, Justice of the Supreme Court of Nicaragua
- 42 Dominican Republic:
An Instrument for Strengthening the Rule of Law
Jorge Subero Isa, President of the Supreme Court of the Dominican Republic

Part IV

Conclusions and Other Knowledge Initiatives

- 46 The Promoters of the IUDICIS Network
Adriana Lander Osio,
Supreme Tribunal of Justice of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela
- 48 Agreements
- 58 Other Initiatives and Observer Comments
The Association of Constitutional Courts of Francophone Countries
Dominique Rémy-Granger, Constitutional Court of France
- 58 Singapore
Justice Judges' Corridor
Khoo Oon Soo, Judge, Singapore Courts
- 60 Judicial Challenges
Irshad Hasan Khan, Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Justice of Pakistan
- 63 IBERIUS - Ibero-American Judicial Documentation Network
Iñaki Sánchez Guu, General Judicial Council of Spain
- 64 List of Participants and Attendees