

CONTENTS

Forward.....	iii
Introduction
Katherine Bain and Elizabeth Shrader	1
 Section 1: Launch of the Civil Society Brown Bag Seminar
Understanding the Benefits of Civil Society Partnerships
Kerianne Piester	12
 Section 2: Information Technologies and Civil Society: Can Knowledge Communities Be Created?
Access to the Internet and Formation of NGO Networks in Central America
Nora Galeano	16
 Section 3: Civil Society Contributions to Economic Development
Can Civil Society Participation Enhance Local Economic Development?: The Case of Villa El Salvador in Peru
Miguel Azcueta	20
 Section 4: Improving Project Effectiveness through Civil Society Participation: Three Case Studies from LAC
Reconciling Diverse Forms of Civil Society Engagement in Brazil
John Garrison	28
Civil Society Participation in Decision Making and in the Analysis of Structural Adjustment Policies
Sandra Cesilini	34
Civil Society Participation in the Colombian Peace Process
Jairo Arboleda	38

Section 5: Civil Society and Governance: Building Trust Networks

Civil Society Participation is Key to Effective Governance and Development
Claudio Grossman..... 42

Popular Training Techniques for Democratization and
Human Rights Promotion in Peru
Marcia Bernbaum..... 44

Section 6: Civil Society and Cultural Heritage

Culture, Sustainable Development, Traditional Stewards and Community-Based Conservation
Charles D. Kleymeyer..... 48

Strengthening Local Cultures and Grassroots Organizations via E-Commerce
Daniel Salcedo..... 54