

INDICE

Chapter I. Introduction	1
Chapter II. Importance of Project finance in developing countries	3
Chapter III. Project finance: basic structural elements	7
A. General description	7
B. Project viability
C. Forms of investment
EQUITY
Debt
Quasi equity	8
Contractors, supplier and purchasers
Sureties
Insurance
D. Participants
Private participants
Host Countries	9
Export and transit countries
Multilateral participation: World bank and other development banks
E. Benefits	10
F. Risks
1. Project risks vs. Debtors credit risk and Sovereign credit risk	11
2. Commercial vs. political risks
a. Commercial risks	12
b. Political risks
3. Force majeure	13
G. Recollection of risks and related mechanisms
1. Guarantees
Structure	14
Payment vs. performance obligations
2. Insurance causality and political risk
3. take-and-pay, take-or-pay and other purchase/supply contracts	15
4. Put options	16
5. Escrow accounts and other pledges of assets	18
Chapter IV. World bank group	19
Chapter V. World bank: policy and legal frameworks	21
A. Development objectives
B. Issues and considerations
1. IBRD
a. Legal framework
Loans
Guarantees
b. Developmental aspects
Economic returns
Financial returns
Environmental and other socio-economic issues
Distribution of revenues and risks
c. Country context
d. Financial considerations
e. IBRD lending in IDA-only countries: enclave projects	22

g. Institutional policy issues Limitations on financial resources Lender of last resort Selectivity
2. IDA A. Legal framework Credits Guarantees b. Developmental aspects c. country context d. Financial considerations Institutional policy issues	32
Chapter VI. World bank instruments in support of project finance A. Debt financing IBRD loans and IDA credits	37
1. Basic characteristics of loans and credits
2. IBRD loans	38
3. IBRD loans for enclave projects	39
4. IDA credits B. Guarantees	42
1. Direct IBRD and IDA guarantees a. IBRD guarantees i. Partial risk guarantees ii. partial credit guarantees b. IDA guarantees	43
2. World bank financed (Indirect) guarantee protection Country guarantees Third-party guarantees	45
3. Framework for World bank support through guarantees a. Form of investment b. Type of obligation c. Risks commercial vs. political	47
C. Other guarantee-type instruments 1. Put options	49
2. Political risk insurance
3. Take-or-pay and other purchase/supply contracts	50
D. Equity and quasi equity	51
E. Other World bank investment support debt refinancing and investment refinancing 1. Debt refinancing	52
2. Investment facilities	53
F. Use of contingent loans Purpose and financial attributes Irrevocable	54
g. Overview of World bank support debt Equity Guarantees Put options Political risk Insurance Take-or-pay/take-and-pay contracts	55

Chapter VII. Relative advantages or World banks support
A. Financial advantages
Resource base
Catalytic role	59
Willingness to lend in developing countries
Willingness to finance government investment
Favorable terms: maturities and interest
B. Political risks protection
1. Political risk guarantees	61
2. Political risk comfort
3. World bank leverage
Contractual leverage	62
Leverage regarding future lending
Leverage regarding other donor resources
C. Additional considerations
1. Policy conditionality	63
2. Risk analysis
Sovereign credit risk vs. Project risks	64
Developmental implications of project risks
3. Considerations
Procurement policies	66
Financial management requirements
Development vs. commercial orientation
Chapter VII. International finance corporation
A. Forms of investments
Loans: IFC funded and syndicated
Equity
Quasi equity	69
Guarantees
B. Institutional considerations
C. Relative advantages of IFC participation	71
Chapter IX. Multilateral investment guarantee agency
A. MIGA financed coverage	73
1. Eligibility: Investor and investments
2. Types of coverage
Currency transfer (Inconvertibility)
Expropriation	74
War and civil disturbance
Breach of contract
3. Risk assessment, risk mitigation, and country/project exposure limits	75
4. terms of insurance
B. MIGA sponsorship trust fund	76
C. MIGA guarantee administration
D. Relative advantages of MIGA participation	77
Annexes	79
A-1 IBRD loan to project company with country guarantee	80
A-2 IBRD loan to country with onlending to project company	82
A-3 1 IBRD loan for and enclave project	84
B: IDA credit	86
C-1: 1 IBRD partial risk guarantee	88

C-2 1 IBRD partial credit guarantee	90
C-3 IBRD partial credit guarantee through option	92
D-1 World Bank financed country guarantee	94
D-2 World Bank financed third-party guarantee	96
D-3 World Bank financed put option	98
D-4 World Bank financed take-or-pay and other contracts	100
E: World Bank financed equity	102
F-1: World Bank financed debt refinancing	104
F-2 World Bank financed investment facility	106
Selected bibliography	109