

Contents

Foreword	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations and Acronyms	xi
Executive Summary	xiii
1 Introduction	1
Context for the Strategy	3
IDA's Strategic Approaches to Africa's Development
Challenges	5
Recent Changes in IDA's Operating Environment	9
Trends in IDA's Lending and Analytical Work and
Knowledge Management	12
Assessments of IDA's Performance	17
2 Lessons Learned	21
Substantive Lessons	21
Operational Imperatives	27
3 The Pillars of the Strategy: Sharpening IDA's
Strategic Focus	31
Pillar One: Improving Governance and Reducing Conflict	32
Pillar Two: Investing in People	48
Pillar Three: Increasing Growth and Enhancing
Competitiveness	56

4 Pillar Four: Implementing the Emerging Partnership Model and the Results Agenda	77
Mainstreaming the Emerging Partnership Model	77
Moving to Results-Based Assistance	91
5 Conclusions	101
What's Different about the Strategy?	101
Risks and Constraints	102
Moving Forward	104
Tables
1.1 IDA Grant Eligibility under IDA-13	12
3.1 African Poverty, Aid Flows, and Cattle Subsidies, 2001	63
4.1 CPIA Rankings, December 2002	81
4.2 How PRSCs Are Different from Traditional Adjustment Lending	87
5.1 Key Benchmarks for Strategy Implementation	105
Figures
1.1 Background: An Emerging Strategy of Assistance in Africa and Major Sectoral Themes	4
3.1 The Four Strategic Pillars	32
3.2 The Postconflict Model	34
4.1 Emerging Partnership Model: Client Typology Continuum	82
4.2 Emerging Partnership Model: Forms of Support	84
4.3 Possible Evolution of PRSCs over Time	88
4.4 The Four Pillars and the MDGs	94
4.5 Economic and Sector Work Array	96
Boxes
1.1 The Millennium Development Goals	10
1.2 The Enhanced Heavily Indebted Poor Countries HIPC Initiative	11
1.3 Client Surveys	18

2.1	Growth–Poverty Elasticity in Africa	22
2.2	Working with the New Partnership for African Development	24
2.3	The Strategic Partnership with Africa	29
3.1	Postconflict Strategy: The Democratic Republic of the Congo	35
3.2	IDA’s Multicountry Engagement in the Great Lakes Region	36
3.3	Low-Income Countries under Stress: The LICUS Strategy for Somalia	37
3.4	Capacity Building in Procurement and Fiduciary Management	41
3.5	Building Expenditure Accountability Capacity: Some Emerging Lessons	42
3.6	Tracking Public Spending: A Catalyst for Better Governance	43
3.7	Toward a More Strategic Approach to Capacity Building in Africa	47
3.8	Water Supply and Sanitation: The Action Plan for the Africa Region	51
3.9	Community-Driven Development	52
3.10	The Multicountry AIDS Program for Africa	55
3.11	A Summary of International Finance Corporation’s (IFC) Strategic Initiative for Sub-Saharan Africa	60
3.12	An Integrated Approach to Private Sector Development	61
3.13	Main Features of the Regional Integration Assistance Strategy (RIAS) for West Africa	65
3.14	The Nile Basin Initiative	66
3.15	Linking Environment and Poverty Reduction: Madagascar	74
4.1	Africa’s International Bank for Reconstruction and Development Countries	83